

WHAT TO DO IF YOU ARE A VICTIM OF ANTISEMITISM

It is unacceptable to mistreat someone because of their religion, race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, or disability. If you or someone you know has experienced or witnessed an incident of bias, hatred, or bigotry, follow these steps.

Note: All criminal hate activity should be reported to law enforcement. If this is an emergency and you fear for your safety or the safety of another person, please call 911.

REPORT THE INCIDENT:

Notify the following:

- The school or business where the event took place
- Law enforcement
- ADL (adl.org/report-incident)

Give as much detail as possible regarding the incident; if graffiti or vandalism was involved, take pictures and call 311.

FIND LOCAL ADVOCATES AND ASSISTANCE:

Federation's Jewish Community Relations Council (JCRC) is a group of Jewish volunteers dedicated to social justice action and equipped to advocate and educate on your behalf and provide helpful resources for schools and businesses. Contact Aaron Bloch at aaron@jewishnola.org for more information.

Jewish Family Services is here to help you or a loved one work through the trauma and help you cope with the experience of antisemitism, because no one should have to heal alone. Contact Jewish Family Services for more information: jfsneworleans.org or 504.831.8475.

ADL's Campus Antisemitism Report Card™ is a new comprehensive tool that evaluates antisemitism on college and university campuses. Find out how schools are responding to and combatting antisemitism and protecting Jewish students.
